

STRETCH THOSE LEGS

Get yourself pins that Tweedy would be jealous of for summer

What is it about the arrival of summer that increases our mobile bills? Must be all those calls to plan festivals, drinking and holidays. So we're seriously thankful for Top up & Stretch from T-Mobile. It makes your top ups last longer by giving you £10 free bonus credit to use at the weekend, when you top up £10 during the week. To register just text STRETCH to 441. So now we've got that under control, it's time to sort the other thing that needs stretching – our legs...

Longer legs without trips to the gym...

| Go nude. Er, not like that. Rock a nude-coloured heel with a black tip. They're a massive summer trend, and they'll create the appearance of longer Paris-like pins.

| Avoid shoes with a strap across the ankle, it'll cut off your legs and make them look stumpy. Go for low-cut ones that give toe cleavage.

| Try a fitted blouse and tight pencil skirt with faint vertical pinstripes for legs as long as Shipwrecked's Char.

| Embrace high waist jeans that sit about two inches above your belly button, tuck in a crisp white T-shirt and add wooden wedges.

| Don't shy away from the hot new floral ra-ra skirt trend. The volume will balance you out, making your pins look leaner. Whatever Gwynnie.
