1 Branding

It's our job to know the USP for every event and every client. We communicate it personally during treatments, engaging guests/PR's and internal staff in a genuine and trustworthy manner.

2 Engagement

They call it the power of touch. Physical contact makes people feel special, engages them with that key messages and ensures that their experience of that brand is memorable.

3 Pulling Power

Beauty, massage and wellness treatments are popular. People like one on one contact - they like to be pampered. An exhibition stand with Indian Head Massages is the one with a queue. A press day with Bespoke Manicures ensures the journalists confirm in advance.
